Academic Integrity Commitment

I, _____ (Name), student ID _____, am a student of _____ College. I hereby solemnly declare that all materials submitted during the scholarship application process are truthful, accurate, and complete, and fully comply with academic standards and integrity requirements.

In order to maintain academic dignity and ensure the fairness and impartiality of the selection, I voluntarily make the following commitments:

I. Authenticity of Application Materials. All personal information submitted by the applicant, including academic performance, research achievements, social practice experience, and award records, is provided as truthful and accurate information without any falsification, alteration, exaggeration, or concealment. All supporting materials (such as transcripts, acceptance certificates for academic papers, patent certificates, and award certificates) are obtained through legitimate means and contain no fraudulent elements.

II. Normative Disclosures of Academic Achievements. I hereby solemnly declare that all academic achievements listed in the application materials (including published papers, pending publications, patent applications, research projects, etc.) were obtained during my academic tenure. All achievements are credited to "Hohai University" as the primary institution, with my contributions and ranking clearly specified in accordance with the university's regulations on research achievement recognition. For collaborative works, I have accurately disclosed both the collaborators' information and my specific contributions, and have never engaged in any act of appropriating others' intellectual labor.

III. Commitment to Preventing Academic Misconduct. I fully recognize the gravity of academic misconduct and hereby solemnly pledge:

1. To strictly prohibit all forms of plagiarism and unauthorized use of others' academic achievements.

2. To rigorously prevent data fabrication, falsification, or alteration of experimental data and research materials.

3. To completely eliminate improper practices including multiple manuscript submissions and duplicate publications.

4. To strictly forbid soliciting others to write papers or complete academic tasks on behalf of others.

5. To comply with all confidentiality regulations of the university and laboratory, and refrain from disclosing unpublished research data or materials.

IV. Commitment and Liability. I hereby acknowledge that any breach of the above commitments constitutes serious academic misconduct. Should any violation of these commitments be discovered during or after the review process, I voluntarily assume all consequences, including but not limited to: disqualification from this scholarship application; immediate revocation of any awarded honors and return of all prize money; acceptance of disciplinary actions by the university in accordance with relevant regulations, which will be recorded in my academic record; and assumption of corresponding legal liabilities.

This letter of commitment shall take effect from the date of my signature, and its contents are true and valid, and shall have legal and moral binding force on me.
