

Scholarship Review Q&A

1. What is following rules and regulations?

Please describe:

- 1) Your understanding and compliance with Chinese laws and regulations, Hohai University discipline and regulations
- 2) Describe rewards and punishment if you received any
- 3) Your volunteer experience (example: help teachers to manage student affair, help other students in various ways)

Tips: Focus on your performance concerning the law, such as you have learned and respected the law and did not violate the rules, etc.

2. What is the real word limit for self-assessment form?

Following rules and regulations (no less than 50 words)

Academic performance (no less than 100 words, do not list course name, describe your study experience)

Participation in activities (no less than 50 words)

Due to system setting, it is counted by character, so real requirement is as follow:

Observe rules and regulations (250-1000 character)

Academic performance (500-2000 character)

Participation in activities (250-1000 character)

3. Master and bachelor students who graduate this year

You cannot join scholarship review, because your scholarship will be ended by July.

4. I have submitted once, but now I cannot find the application form.

If you see this message below

A screenshot of a system message box with a white background and a thin border, centered on a dark gray background. The message text is: "You have already applied, please check it in your todo/doing task list." In the bottom right corner of the message box, there is a blue link labeled "View".

You have already applied, please check it in your todo/doing task list.
